Subject: Re: Rounding up to specified decimal points.
Posted by thomas on Mon, 21 Dec 2015 21:12:21 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

You can define the rounding of all cells of one columns with a right mouse click on the column header and choosing 'Show rounded values...'. However, rounding in DataWarrior is not based on digits after the decimal point. It lets you define the number of significant digits, which is mathematically more meaningful.