On a tangent for those curious about InChI:

On April 5th/6th 2022, InChI trust organized a public zoom meeting to showcase existing applications and ongoing developments with/of InChI including topics like Markush formulae, tautomerism, polymers, nanoparticles, trading with mixtures and reactions as well as the «precision FDA contest» anticipated for fall 2022. Since today, the .pdf (total of 16, about 31 MB in volume) are mirrored on
