This is now built in: "Chemistry->From Chemical Structure->Add Substructure Count..."
This opens a dialog to
-select the structure column
-to draw a fragment with optional query features
-and to define whether counted fragments may overlap on some atoms

It is in the current beta and will be in the next official version that is due in a few days