For the site about additional data files for DataWarrior,

http://www.openmolecules.org/datawarrior/datafiles.html,

I would like to suggest the addition of file Tautobase.dwar file related to your recent publication about Tautobase (J. Chem. Inf. Model. 2020, 60, 1085-1089; https://doi.org/10.1021/acs.jcim.0c00035).

Thank you for the suggestion. The file doesn't need to go on the additional data files page, because it is included in the reference files of the DataWarrior installation since version 5.2.1.
